Apple Butter Week

The Appomattox County Jaycees will be selling apple butter Wednesday and Thurs., to aid in the statewide project to obtain funds for Camp Virginia Jaycee. The camp is owned by the Virginia Jaycees and run by the Virginia Association for Retarded Children for the benefit of all retarded children in the state of Virginia. Apple butter is a popular product in every home and purchase of the item from a Jaycee will help the Jaycees reach their goal of $150.

Singers To Present Musical Sunday

"The Sounds of Assurance," a Baptist Student Union sponsored group composed of thirty-seven students from Bluefield College, have compiled a number of Christian folk songs, written their own dialogue, and produced a Christian folk musical called "One Way," "The Sounds of Assurance" will present "One Way" at Liberty Baptist Church, Appomattox, Sunday, March 14, at 7:30 p.m.

It all began in the fall of 1969 when a group of students in the BSU decided to present the Christian folk musical, "Happening Now" by Bob Oldenburg. Seven performances of "Happening Now" were given during the spring semester. The students were so inspirited that they wanted to present another musical in 1970-71. In order for the musical to say what they wished to communicate to their listeners, the students began to collage a number of folk songs and to write the script. After songs were added and dropped and script was written and rewritten, finally a logical sequence developed and a message emerged - 'One Way.'' Members painted signs, lighting was developed, and sound equipment was secured. A touch of humor, a note of seriousness, a big dash of good singing, all combined with guitars, piano, and drums - and you have "The Sounds of Assurance." Richy Nuckolls, a mainstay from the "Happening Now" cast, was chosen as student director. Mrs. Anne Robertson, professor of organ and music, serves as music and voice director. Whitey Davis, BSU director, is the producer. The public is cordially invited to "The Sounds of Assurance" presentation of "One Way" at Liberty Baptist Church on Sunday night, March 14.

Rev. Thomas D. Lea is pastor of Liberty Baptist Church.

James J. Pugh, Jr.

Named Assistant Cashier At Farmers National

James J. Pugh, Jr. (Jim) has been named assistant cashier by the Board of Directors of Farmers National Bank, Appomattox.

Mr. Pugh is a native of Madisonville, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Pugh of Charlotte Court House.

A veteran of the U. S. Air Force, Mr. Pugh was associated with United Virginia Bank/First National, Lynchburg for six years, serving as assistant cashier until his transfer to the United Virgo - ank Service Corporation, a subsidiary, where he served as assistant merchant officer just prior to his appointment here.

He attended Ferrum Jr. College, Ferrum, Va. and Hampden-Sydney College, Hampden-Sydney, Va. and is now completing degree requirements at Lynchburg College.

Mr. Pugh says he is interested in the work of the Jaycees and other civic organizations. During his "time off" he enjoys hunting, fishing and golf.

He and his wife Judy and their three children, Greg, 9; Gayle, 4, and Jeanne, one year old, now live in Lynchburg but are planning to build a home in Appomattox County very soon.

"We are pleased to have Mr. Pugh associated with our bank," said T. DeWitt Evans, executive vice-president, early this week. "We feel that with his years of experience in the banking field and his local background he will contribute immeasurably to the long range planning of our bank in the local community."

'White Cane Day' Friday & Saturday

"His Honor", the very honorary mayor of Appomattox, Henry Broderick Pack, IV, has considered the matter very seriously and sits with pen in hand (a miniature cane!) to witness a proclamation that Friday and Saturday are "White Cane Days" in Appomattox County. Conferring with "His Honor" is V. O. Mims, supt. Transcontinental Gas Pipeline Corp. Pumping Station 170 and chairman of the Appomattox Lions' Club annual drive for funds to aid the blind. Each donation Friday and Saturday means eyeglasses, an eye transplant, research and other forms of aid for those who do not see well. The large and attractive poster in lavendar and white (background) is the work of Mr. and Mrs. Mims' son-in-law, Robert Stubblefield, a commercial artist of Lynchburg. By the way, "Rick" Pack, 13 months old, is the son of pharmacist Brod Pack and Mrs. Pack and grandson of Appomattox Mayor Henry Pack and Mrs. Pack. He is also the grandson of Mrs. H. A. Williams of Pamplin and the late Mr. Williams.

Country Music Show March 12

The Woodmen of the World's Country Music Show is this Friday, March 12 at 8 p.m. at Appomattox County High School auditorium. Admission is $1.00.

Wayne Campbell, announcer for Radio Station W.B.R.G. will be Master of Ceremonies.

Those participating are: Robert Honeycutt and Piedmont Playboys; H. T. Nash, Jr. and The Virginians; Robert Wooten and The Blue Ribbon Boys; Blue Grass Association, from Evington, Va.; The Virginians, from Lynchburg; Joseph Vaughan, M. D. Caldwell, and Wayne Reid. Tickets available at the door.

LIONS TO HEAR ZONE CHAIRMAN

Lewis Bridgforth, Zone Chairman, will be the speaker tonight (Thursday) for the meeting of Appomattox Lions at 6:45 p.m. at Maude's Restaurant. His subject will be "Sight Conservation". Lions' White-Cane fund drive is set for Friday and Saturday.

Annual Meeting

A representative of the Department of Highways in charge of the secondary system of roads in Appomattox County will meet with the Board of Supervisors at its regular meeting in March 1971 at 9a.m. in the Court House

1970 Figures Up 7% Over 1960

Appomattox County's official population in the 1970 census was 9,784, up 7.0% from the 1960 figure of 9,148, the bureau of the census, U.S. Department of Commerce, reports.

The official population of the state was 4,648,494, up 17.3% from the 1960 population count, which was 3,966,949.

The 1970 census counted 7,265 white persons in Appomattox County, 74.3% of the total; 2,515 Negroes, and 4 persons of other races. In 1960, 74.5% of the population was white.

The census showed 820 children under 5 years; 2,477 in ages 5 through 17; 5,348 people 18 through 64; and 1,139 who were 65 and older. The population 14 years and over included 4,719 married people, 653 who were widowed, 141 divorced, and 1,705 never married.

Appomattox County's 1970 population was classified as 100 percent rural.

There were 2,905 households, with 9,719 persons, including 374 one-person households. In addition 65% were living in group quarters.

The 1970 census counted 3,290 housing units in Appomattox County, 2,155 of them occupied by owners, 750 occupied by tenants, and 385 vacant. These included vacant units for seasonal use. The proportion occupied by owners in 1970 was 65.5%, compared with 62.5% in 1960.

The median value of owner-occupied houses in Appomattox County was $10,900, compared with $6,600 in 1960. The median rent paid by tenants in 1970 was $42 per month, compared with $43 in 1960. Half were over and half below the median figures.

Among year-round units there were 2,918 single family houses, 179 housing units in multi-unit buildings, and 177 mobile homes or trailers. The percentage of occupied units with more than one person per room was 11.5 compared with 15.6 in 1960. Of all the occupied housing units 2,033 had piped water, toilet, and bath, while 872 lacked some or all plumbing.

The Appomattox Chapter, Future Business Leaders of America (above), won more awards in regional competition this year than ever before in chapter history. Mrs. Celia Beamer is advisor.
